

Happy Birthday Jesus - John 7

- It's time for Trumpets, Atonement and Booths Leviticus 23
 - Jesus half-brothers disrespect Him
 - Come on, go flash your stuff in the crowds
 - You want to be known publicly, so why be secretive now
 - All His half-brothers have no faith in Him
 - Jesus sends His brothers on to Jerusalem without Him
- Mean while in Jerusalem
 - The Jews—where is He? Mumbling & grumbling
 - He's a good man—no He leads people astray
 - Jesus came to Jerusalem, but not publically—after all it's His birthday
 - There could be no party without Him
- Jesus goes to the temple and begins teaching
 - The Jews wonder at His teaching having no formal education
 - Jesus says the teaching isn't His but the ONE who sent Him
 - Jesus hadn't come in His own name and therefore righteous before them
 - Moses gave you the law yet you don't follow it
 - Why do you want to kill me?
 - The crowd says the only one seeking to kill you is the demon in you
 - Jesus points out that they circumcise men on the Sabbath why not heal the whole man on the Sabbath, use a righteous judgment
 - Some were saying they seek to kill Jesus, do they not know He is the Christ?
 - Jesus responds, You know who I AM and where I AM from
 - I have not come of Myself, but the One who sent Me
 - He who sent Me is true, you know Him not
 - I know Him as I AM from Him, He sent Me
- The crowd included many who had faith
 - When the Christ comes, could He do more than Jesus has done?
- The Pharisees sought to seize Him but His time had not come
- Jesus speaks: A little while longer I AM with you, I go to Him who sent Me
 - You will seek Me but not find Me, where I AM you can't come x2
- Then on the last day of Sukkot, Jesus says: If anyone is thirsty, let them come to Me and drink, as scriptures says, if anyone faithes Me, from his innermost being shall flow rivers of living water
